

Shari Wormwood

Shari has served the electric cooperative sector working at the Minnesota Rural Electric Association for the past 15 years. She is currently the communication specialist and has held administrative, marketing and event planning roles in the past. Shari's main responsibilities are editor of two monthly newsletters, webmaster and management of the associate member program. Her prior experiences were public facing as a substitute teacher, Tupperware executive manager and radio advertising sales consultant.

Shari studied communications and has a BA from Concordia College in Moorhead, Minn. She lives in Elk River, Minn. with her husband Cabot. They are blessed with four children and three grandchildren.

Shari has served on the CoMinnesota council; she represents electric cooperatives on the Minnesota Energy Consortium, and has developed her public speaking talent through her membership with Toastmaster International.